

DETAILS FOR YOUR TRIP

WHAT TO EXPECT:

Our Guest Services team will be anticipating your arrival at the Oak Cottage. After you settle into your room (or into a nice glass of wine), we encourage you to sit back and enjoy the “Blackberry State of Mind”!

Our fine dining restaurant, The Barn, is available for diners 10 years and older. We ask that gentlemen wear a jacket and ladies dress accordingly. Guests of all ages are welcome to dine in the relaxed atmosphere of the Dogwood by reservation from 5:30 to 7:00pm. Following 7:00pm, the the Dogwood is available for diners 10 years and older.

WHAT TO PACK:

We are a property geared for all kinds of experiences! No matter what you are planning, we recommend bringing the following essentials... along with an open mind and excited heart to learn about the Farm’s sustainability and balanced life:

To dine in The Barn, dinner attire including a jacket for gentlemen

Athletic clothes and shoes for activities such as hiking on our trails or biking on our Trek bikes

Swimwear for the pool, steam rooms, or paddling trips

Comfortable lounge wear

A rain jacket or rain gear: the weather in Tennessee is always changing and is difficult to predict... luckily, we are prepared to have fun in any weather!

WHAT TO DO WHILE YOU’RE HERE:

Everything! If you have to choose, we recommend these Farm favorites:

Cooking Demonstration

Fly Fishing

Sporting Clay Shooting

Rose Petal Turndown

Wine or Whiskey Tasting

Yoga Class or Barre Class in the Wellhouse

Gardening with John Coykendall

Hesse Creek Stone Massage

Picnic at Your Favorite Spot on Property

Horseback Riding

Paddle Sports

Farm Fresh Rejuvenation Facial

We are always delighted to answer any questions you may have regarding your room reservation, and our concierge team is available to schedule any activities, spa services, or confirm dinner times.
